Aries in the Tarot

Δ Quick Guide to Spark, Courage, and Intuition.

Part of the 'Tarot Through the Zodiac' Series

The Emperor:

Structure, confidence, and stepping into authority.
You are the leader.

The Fool:

Taking a leap of faith. Begin before you're "ready."

The Tower:

Sudden shifts or breakdowns that clear space for bold transformation.

Ace of Wands:

A spark of passion. A "yes" moment. New opportunity or idea.

Knight of Wands:

Movement, risk, daring action. Learn through doing.

Curiosity, youthful energy, creative beginnings.

When Aries is active in a reading, ask:

- Where am I being called to act boldly?
- What ignites my passion and forward motion?
- Am I leading, following, or avoiding the path?

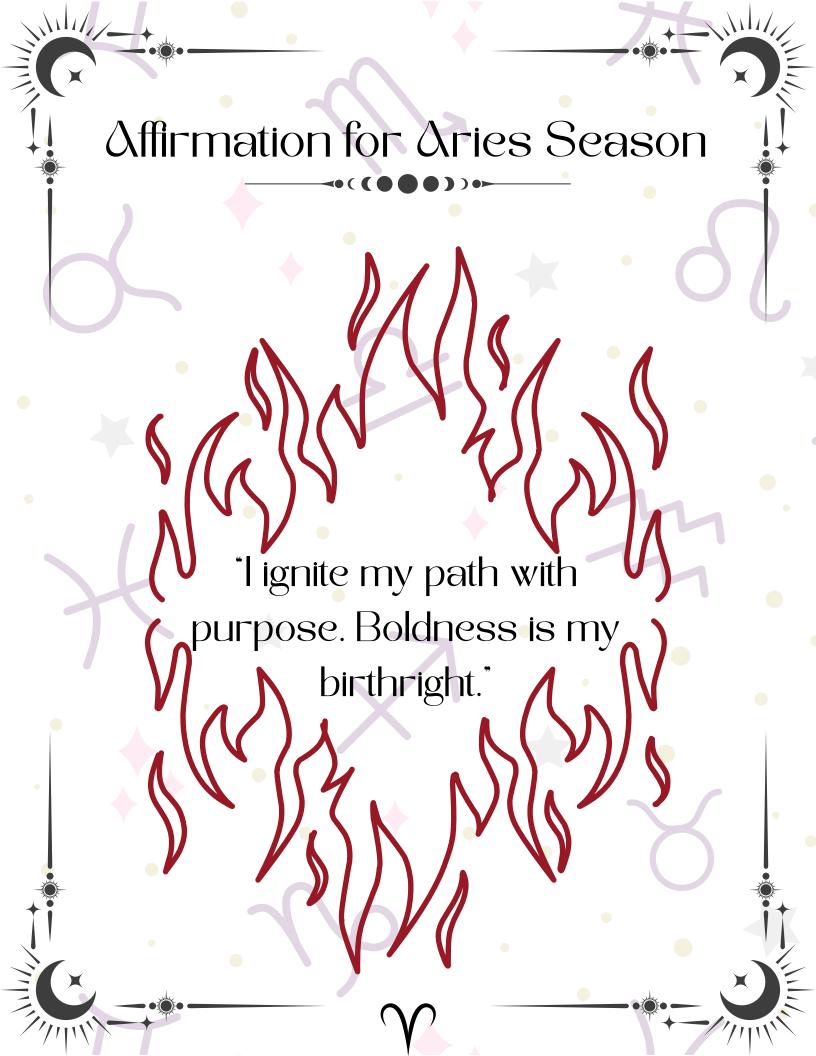

Where in my life do I need to lead rather than wait?

What decision am I overthinking when I already know the answer?

What would I do today if I had full trust in my instinct?

Pull 1–3 cards after answering the reflection prompts

Ask:

How is Aries energy helping or hindering me right now?

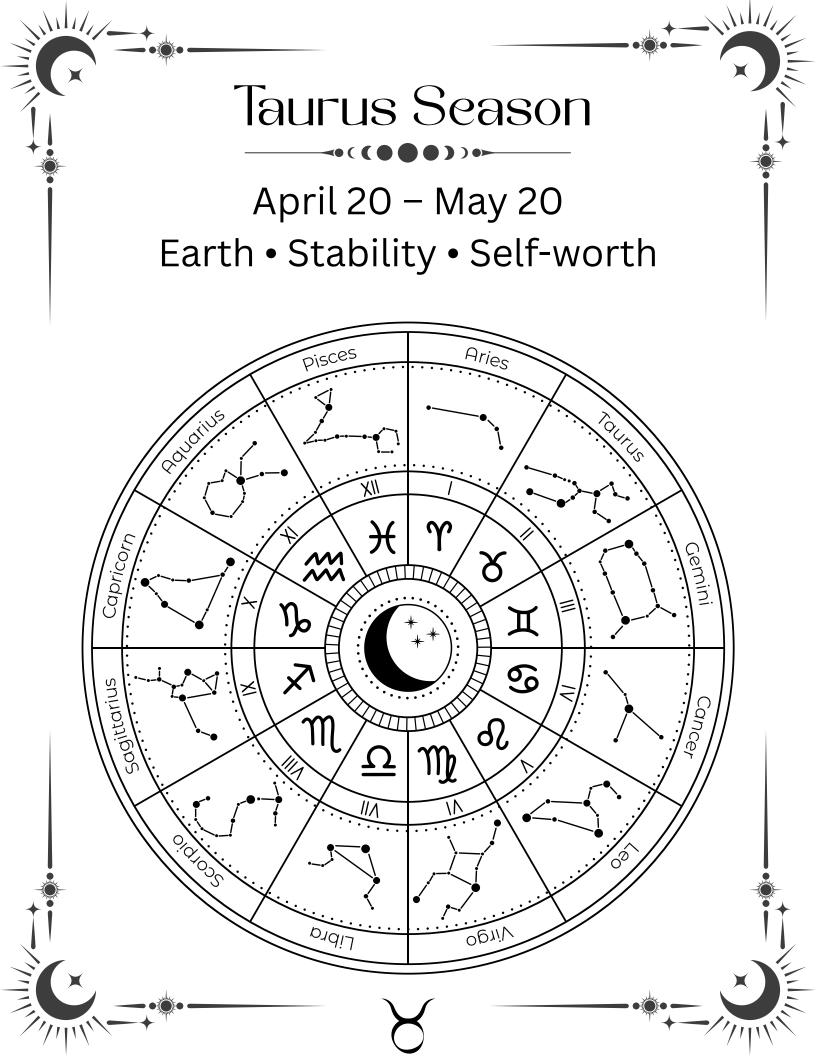

Journal freely, then use this sheet again during future Aries transits or seasons

Return to this page whenever Aries appears in your readings or chart transits. Let it guide your fire.

The Mierophant:

Sacred structure, tradition, devotion, and learning. Taurus' ruling Major Arcana.

The Empress:

Embodiment of beauty, comfort, fertility, and nature. Venus rules both this card and Taurus.

Queen of Pentacles:

Grounded, nurturing, abundant, and self-sustaining.

King of Pentacles:

Stable, structured, a builder of legacy and provider.

Suit of Pentacles - The Earth Element

→ Reflects material growth, long-term effort, grounded wisdom, and body-based intuition.

Earth signs show us how to:

Create sustainable structures

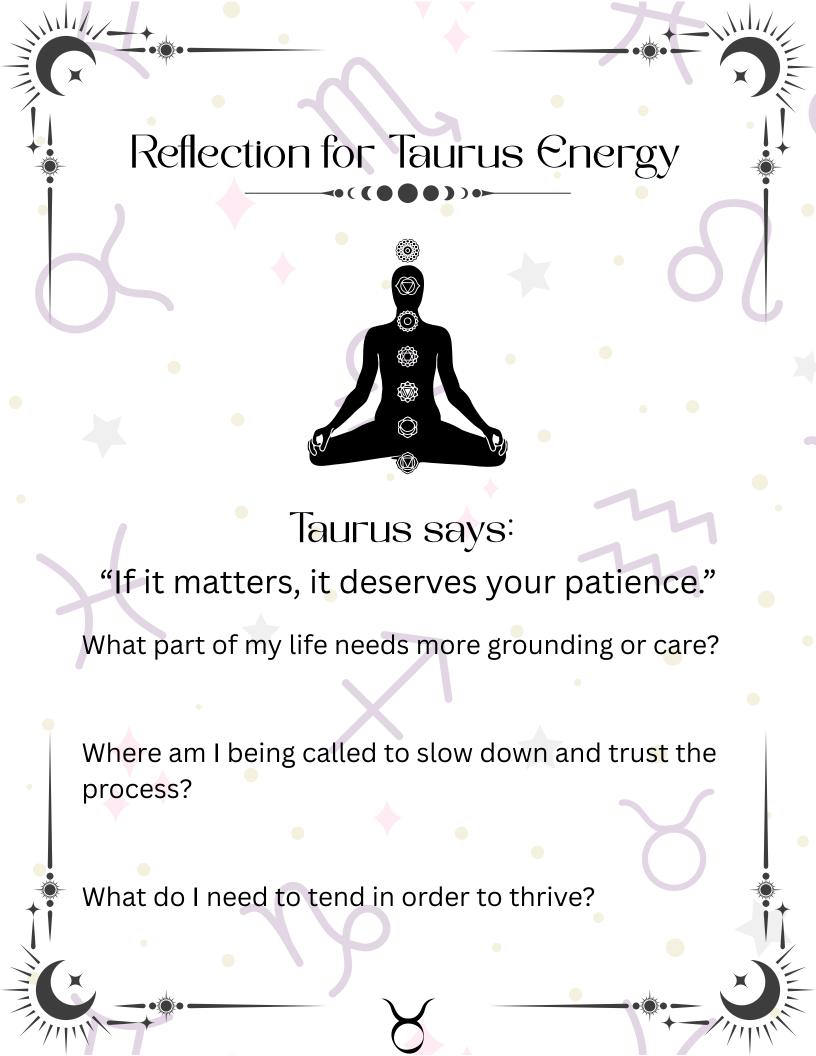

- Commit to growth
- Honor the physical body and natural cycles

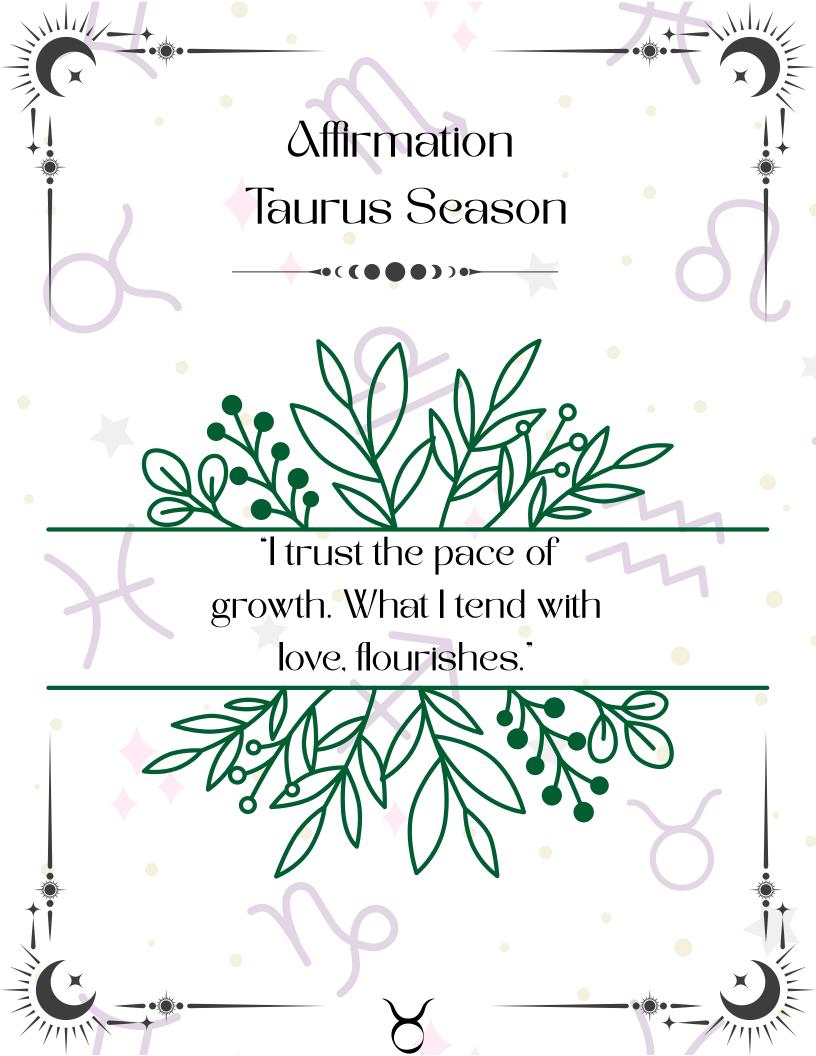

Pentacles in a spread suggest:

- Investments of time, money, or energy
- Tangible results over time
- A call to stay rooted in value and purpose

- The Moon, Sun, or planetary transits move through Taurus
- You're reading for a Taurus client
- You're exploring Pentacles or need grounding in your own practice
